Approved For Release 2004/03/11 : CIA-RDP75B00380R000200100030-0

25X1

25X1

	Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Monday - 17 September 1973	age 5
1A A	Dorothy Brown, in the office Jennings Randolph (D., W. Va.), called to arrange for an empirinterview for a constituent, I called and an interview was arranged for 10:00, 18 September 1973.
	Dorothy Fosdick, Permanent Substitute Investigations staff, called to say Senator Jackson was very main the John Finney story in today's New York Times describing quotes Brezhnev as calling for an extended detente to permit the Bloc an opportunity to achieve overall power position superior West. She said the Senator would like to know our views of the any other information we might have on the same subject. Later in the day I met with Fosdick	uch interested g a report which he Communist to that of the assured me Senator Jackson would observe these caveats. I also brought her up-to-date on recent developments reaccest in ICBM tests and submarine construction, and on possible access terrorists to Soviet SA-7 missile launchers. 16. Met with Senator Stuart Symposite called his attention to a seriously mischievous and misleading the fall edition of the Congressional Quarterly's "Guide to America accusing General Walters of participating in the Watergate covers Senator we thought someone should write to the Editor of the Courterly to set him straight and I showed him a suggested text. Noting that he himself had made a public statement vindicating asked if he would be disposed to write such a letter. He said is material with him he would give it some further thought. He disposed to write the countries of the contribution of the contrib	egarding Soviet is of Arab sington and reference in erican Government' er up. I told the ongressional t of such a letter. the General, I ne would like to be f I would leave the
25X1		She

he would recommend against anyone in the Agency writing such a letter.